

HENLEY COMMUNITY LIBRARY MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Please keep this side for your records

What does membership of Henley Community Library give me?

- The right to vote at HCL's General Meetings
- Eligibility to hold office (be a Director) in HCL (over 18's)
- A member's discount on chargeable services – course fees, events, excursions, computer time in excess of ½ hour, copying, printing. This does not apply to library fines for overdue items.
- Membership valid from date of joining to start of next financial year

Do I still need a Warwickshire Library Service card to borrow books, etc., from the library or to claim HCL benefits?

- YES, you do. But the WLS card is free, unless you lose it. There is a charge for replacements.
- You need to show your WLS card with your HCL card when claiming your benefits and attending meetings.

What obligations do I have as a member?

- To support the objectives of the Henley Community Library and follow the rules in its Articles of Incorporation
- If the Library becomes insolvent, to contribute up to £10 to pay off its debts. HCL is a private, not-for-profit company with liability limited by guarantee up to a maximum of £10. HCL is applying for charity status.

What does it cost? FROM APRIL 2012 TO FIRST AGM

- Individuals, £5 per annum
- Companies, £10 per annum
